Mr Phil McCarthy
Estate Administrator

Dear Mr McCarthy

In response to your email correspondence of 18 Oct 2007, please do not attempt to make any payment to a plaintiff whose false litigation backfired and was awarded nothing by the Court. You are under no obligation to pay for their wrongdoing, or at least the estate is under no obligation.

I am submitting a detailed report to Anti-Corruption Police on the numerous collusions and corruptions initiated by an officer of the Public Trustee from 2004 onwards, whose personal proactive allegiance with the plaintiff and whose probate meddling of the estate has led to the loss of most of the value of the estate overseas to squatters.

The Public Trustee should now cease colluding with any parties hostile to the estate.

As a direct result of the collusions, I would say most of the value of the estate overseas has disappeared to squatters. I will seek, on the basis of the felonious behaviour by the officer concerned, recovery of property losses from the Public Trustee who were responsible for that officer's conduct.

Regards

Philip Stilianos
