Manager

Your firm may be sued for incompetence and negligence in the course of time, for allegedly covertly colluding with the Public Trustee and the Probate Registrar to undermine Erini Stiliano's will, and expending large amounts of money attempting to work out means to deprive the beneficiary Philip Stilianos of his inheritance.

I am leaving for Greece this weekend to defend a lawsuit against a valuable property and to view the properties.

I am told by an intrusive Vanessa Varga that she has instituted law proceedings..against the estate?

I have no idea what she is on about. She will not explain what its about. I am mystified. There is obviously an ulterior motive because she will not come clean and give any details. She is doing this without any instruction from anyone. I strongly advised Vanessa not to do such foolish things. I am totally exasperated in asking her what specifically is she attempting to do. As far as I can make out she is trying to get her bill paid and coming up with a ruse to sell Greek land in order to do this, when both Stella (my sister) and I have told her everyone consents to billing the Australian estate.

I will make sure that my lawyer in Greece knows of the ongoing shenanigans of your law firm with regard to your attempts to access Greek properties via the Supreme Court. The ones your client desires...? Sell 'em cheap...? Greece will have none of it.

As far as I am aware Australia is now irrelevant. Your firm said as much in writing. A letter from T&T (attached) indicates that T&T was no longer interested in Greece and that I and my siblings were to obtain there own lawyers and make their own claims in regard to Greek properties.

So now that any law court and law firm is irrelevant as far as Greece property inheritance is concerned, I have over many months engaged a lawyer overseas to defend the estate and prepared documents that Greece requires to process the will and my inheritance through the Greek courts.

That's where all the action is - Greece. Why is T&T intruding?

If you wish to communicate with me, serve papers etc, I am NOT at my home address. You will have to correspond via email.

14/03/2007

As I said you are intruders at the moment. You have tried everything possible to destroy my mother and myself, failed, and are now having another go.

Philip Stilianos

Hi Daughters

I think this is an expensive joke.

It seems the Executor and her law firm are confused and/or frustrated and are resorting to the comfort of an Australian court in their own State rather than face the proper jurisdiction of a Greek Court which has strict inheritance laws which are not in the Executor's favour.

I won't be wasting time and money and effort with this nuisance affidavit when the plaintiff and her solicitor knows it's a matter to be dealt with under Greek jurisdiction.

Still the fact that for the first time ever the Executor has put something in writing means that her claims can be quashed. No lawyer required either.

The affidavit contains a number of lies, and a number of omissions.

The plaintiff should pay the cost of this affidavit and all legal expenses.

I'm not sure why 'defendants' appear when they have not been actually charged with anything.

Why doesn't the plaintiff submit the affidavit at her expense to a Greek court via a Greek lawyer. That was the understanding Treloar & Treloar made clear in their letter to me where they said they wanted nothing more to do with Greece, that I was not to correspond to them about any Greek matter, and that I and my siblings had to engage our own lawyers in Greece.

Now it appears that Anna and T&T, having failed to get a good deal from Greece, are going to try and get some Judge in an SA Court to read a bunch of lies and get away with it. T&T know how vulnerable and desperate Anna is.

It was understood that the plaintiff would pay at her own expense. Now T&T are attempting to get away with the estate paying for the plaintiff's personal interests.

I booked my flight to Greece a week ago and am leaving tomorrow. If the plaintiff has any claim or complaint to make she can lodge it in Greece, and the Greek court will decide under its laws what properties she is entitled to.
